

At a glance

Selling in Amazon's store

More than 60% of sales in Amazon's store come from independent sellers—most of which are small and medium-sized businesses.

There are Amazon independent sellers in all 50 states, Washington, DC, and Puerto Rico.

More than 75,000 independent sellers surpassed $1 million in sales in 2025.

In 2025, independent sellers employed over 2M people in the US to support their Amazon-related businesses.

Independent sellers in the US sold more than 4.6 billion items in Amazon's store in 2025—that's more than 8,900 per minute.

Independent sellers in the US averaged more than $375,000 in annual sales in Amazon's store in 2025.

Independent sellers are adopting the AI-powered Seller Assistant quickly—there are already more than 230,000 monthly users.

Amazon's Intellectual Property Accelerator has helped more than 33,000 brands obtain trademark protection through a network of trusted IP law firms.

Independent sellers in the US averaged more than $375,000 in annual sales in Amazon's store in 2025.

Independent sellers have access to free education through Seller University, including articles, videos, webinars, and case study learning formats across 35 topic areas and 21 languages.

In 2025, Amazon helped US-based small businesses get more than $1 billion in financing.

Over 11,000 US-based independent sellers grew their sales by more than 10X in 2025.

US-based independent sellers exported more than 580 million items globally in 2025.

Amazon is investing over $4 billion to expand its rural delivery network, with a focus on small towns across the US, allowing independent sellers to bring even faster delivery to millions of customers in less densely populated areas.

Scan the QR code or visit sellingpartners.aboutamazon.com/impact to view the 2025 Small Business Empowerment Report.

